Missionary Spotlight

The HUB Urban Ministry - Shreveport
Cassie Hammett

Cassie was young when she felt God leading her to love the type of people most of us don't want anything to do with. God led her to begin The HUB Urban Ministries. They exist to show homeless people in Shreveport that they are loved by people and by their Heavenly Father. The help provide access to basic needs like food, clothing, and shelter through a part of The HUB called the Lovewell Center. Those who come through the doors are registered for a "Lovewell Card" and given opportunities to earn points through a semester system of classes and meetings. As they earn they can then use their earnings to shop in any of our four stores, The Dresswell, an apparel store, The Eatwell, a food pantry, The Smellwell, a laundromat, and The Drinkwell, a coffee shop. Nothing they have is free, but it's freely theirs if they earn it. This teaches each person that they have value and worth and can do whatever they set their mind to. Pray for Cassie and her team as they serve the homeless in Shreveport.

Ask your parents how you can become involved with The HUB!
